

Radicalization and Extremism Risk Assessment

School/College: St Stephen's CofE First School

	Yes/No	Evidence / Mitigation
Is there a section on radicalization in the school's safeguarding policy?	Yes	Safeguarding Policy
Has the school got a trained Prevent lead?	Yes	Sarah Callanan and Sarah Barrett
Do all staff know who to discuss concerns with? (Single point of contact - SPOC)	Yes	Sarah Callanan
Have staff/governors received appropriate training?	Yes	Prevent online training and most accessed WRAP initially.
Is suitable filtering/monitoring of the internet in place?	Yes	Policy Central
Do children know who to talk to about their concerns?	Yes	All teaching staff
Are there opportunities for pupils to learn about fundamental British values within the curriculum?	Yes	Assemblies and PSHE
Does the school have any recorded cases of pupils at risk of extremism or radicalisation?	No	One case not referred after investigation PCSO several years ago.
Has the school made any referrals in respect of radicalisation to the Access Centre or to Channel?	No	PCSO investigated and dismissed.
What factors make the school community potentially vulnerable to being radicalized? (e.g. extreme religious views promoted locally, tensions between local communities, promotion of radical websites by some pupils/parents)		The school serves a multicultural community with approximately 50% pupils from the Muslim community with a further 15% from other cultural backgrounds including Eastern European Countries. The vast majority of pupils are from Working Class background with approximately 25% in receipt of Pupil Premium.
Comment on the school's community, locality and relevant history The school is located in the heart of Redditch in a relatively deprived ward. The school has forged strong relationships with the local church and community. The school is particularly proud of our multicultural make up and our community is supportive of the school and each other. Both Muslim and Christian parents celebrate Eid at our annual Eid Celebration and attend Church for Christian Festivals such as Christmas. The school has good relationships with the local Police who drop in and visit the school on a regular basis. The local MP has also visited the school.
Risk evaluation	Low Medium High	Way Forward <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Continue to update training for staff via Educare online training once staff have access 2. Ensure all students are aware of extremism and radicalization through assembly calendar 3. Ensure all stakeholders are aware of who the Prevent Lead is - Single Point of Contact

Date completed : 01.10.25

Signed : S.Callanan